PRESS RELEASE

The South Hills Chorale sings at the Great Hall at the Heinz History Center for RAD Days

The South Hills Chorale will perform at RAD Days singing select pieces from their Spring 2023 Concert “And So We Sing” in the Great Hall at the Heinz History Center on October 1st at 11:30 am. RAD Days is The Allegheny Regional Asset District annual ‘thank you’ to taxpayers, offering a chance to see the best of Allegheny County’s top cultural destinations free of charge.

For sixty-three years, the 90-voice South Hills Chorale has delighted local audiences with seasonal concerts that captivate all ages. They will be performing their holiday concert Sound of the Season on Friday, December 15 at 7 pm and Saturday, December 16 at 1 pm at Christ United Methodist Church 44 Highland Rd. Bethel Park under the direction of Music Director Skylar Bunk.

Tickets are $25 which can be bought at the door, online on their website southhillschorale.org/tickets , or from any Chorale member. For more information email Colleen at brenboys@comcast.net
